

ON OUTSIDE VOLUNTEERING

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (Special)--American citizens of Japanese ancestry who are between the ages of 18 and 38 and who live outside WRA centers may volunteer for active service in the United States army by applying at the nearest local draft board, according to instructions issued by national headquarters of the selective service system and mailed to draft boards throughout the country.

The instructions make reference to the announcement here last week that a combat team composed entirely of United States citizens of Japanese extraction or parentage is to be formed for active service in a theatre of war. Volunteers for this team, it is announced, must have been born in the United States or its Territories and be able to speak English.

SHOE RATIONING

In accordance with the latest OPA regulation, the sales of shoes in the Center will be rationed.

Since some people do not possess ration books, a special procedure will be worked out for the residents.

REGISTRATION TODAY

Meetings to be Held in Blocks Prior to the Signup

With the arrival of the necessary forms from Washington, D.C., the general registration of all evacuees 17 years or over began today at 8:30 a.m. at Block 16 and will continue from 1 p.m. at Block 1.

Tomorrow the registrars will cover Block 2 at 8:30 a.m. and Block 15 at 1:15 p.m. Meetings will be held in each block on the night before registration.

Applicants will be asked to fill out either of two forms. The first form for male citizens only is divided into three parts: (1) statements of United States citizens of Japanese ancestry (DSS Form 304A); (2) application for voluntary enlistment (Form 165 and 154); (3) application for leave clearance (WRA Form 126A).

The second form (WRA 126 Rev.) is for women and non-citizen males.

There are several questions included in the forms that require preparation. In order to avoid delay during the registration, residents are asked to have the answers to the following questions in mind: (1) Local selective service board: number, city, county, state. (10) Mother's maiden name: birthplace and occupation prior to evacuation. (11 and 12) Relatives, both in Japan and in the United States: (include only parents, children, brothers and sisters over 15 years of age) name, relation to you, citizenship, complete address and occupation.

OPA RULING FOLLOWED MAY

"We're following the OPA rules in the rationing of food all the way," stated L. A. May, Project steward.

Residents are subject to rationing like the civilians outside, and meatless days have been observed. As other food rationing comes into effect, Centerites will comply accordingly.

No more butter will be issued, but oleomargarine will substitute on a rationed basis.

To aid in the war-time economy plan, tin cans are salvaged and sold; used fats are filtered and utilized for cooking purposes again; and bushel baskets, sacks and crates are saved.

RESETTLEMENT PLANS PROGRESS

In an effort to relocate evacuees as rapidly as possible in outside employment, the WRA has started to organize a network of relocation employment offices and field stations through the Middle West and Rocky Mountain region. The plan was inaugurated after a series of conferences in Chicago and Washington of the WRA employment personnel, officials of the United States Employment Service and representatives of various citizen committees.

"The action of the War department in opening military service for draft age nisei," said WRA Employment chief, Thomas Holland, "has been our signal to make available to every loyal person in the centers an opportunity to serve the cause of American democracy, either in the Army or on the production front, and to prove his title to enjoy all the rights and privileges that America has to offer.

"We are not planning to find merely stop-gaps and emergency jobs for people who desire work, but employment of the highest order that they are qualified to fill. I sincerely hope and believe that every man and woman in the relocation centers, who can be properly qualified for outside employment, will cooperate with us in our effort to make this program an outstanding success."

Five principal relocation offices have been opened in Salt Lake City, Denver, Kansas City, Chi-

PRESIDENTIAL LETTER

February 1, 1943

My dear Mr. Secretary:

The proposal of the War department to organize a combat team consisting of loyal American citizens of Japanese descent has my full approval. The new combat team will add to the nearly five thousand loyal Americans of Japanese ancestry who are already serving in the armed forces of our country.

This is a natural and logical step toward the re-institution of the Selective Service procedures which were temporarily disrupted by the evacuation from the West Coast.

No loyal citizen of the United States should be denied the democratic right to exercise the responsibilities of his citizenship, regardless of his ancestry. The principle on which this country was founded and by which it has always been governed is that Americanism is a matter of the mind and heart; Americanism is not, and never was, a matter of race or ancestry. A good American is one who is loyal to this country and to our creed of liberty and democracy. Every loyal American citizen should be given the opportunity to serve this country wherever his skills will make the greatest contribution -- whether it be in the ranks of our armed forces, war production, agriculture, government service, or other work essential to the war effort.

I am glad to observe that the War department, the Navy department, the War Manpower Commission, the Department of Justice, and the War Relocation Authority are collaborating in a program which will assure the opportunity for all loyal Americans, including Americans of Japanese ancestry, to serve their country at a time when the fullest and wisest use of our manpower is all-important to the war effort.

Very sincerely yours,
/s/ Franklin D. Roosevelt

The Honorable
The Secretary of War
Washington, D. C.

The Royal Dukes remained in the defeatless rank by coking a 25-10 triumph in their cage encounter with the Firemen.

EDITORIAL
THE LIVING SPEECH

February 12 stands commemorated each year as the birthdate of President Abraham Lincoln. Numerous anecdotes and incidents in the life of this great leader are known but one of the best remembered is his Gettysburg Address.

It was in time of war when he held the helm of the nation and through the perilous years of civil conflict, he kept true to his ideals and died a martyr for democracy. It is especially important that the American people bear in mind the words of Lincoln and reread the true meaning in the lines of his living speech.

"Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

"Now we are engaged in a great civil war; testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

"But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate -- we cannot consecrate -- we cannot hallow -- this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us -- that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."
